MEET THE ARTIST

Miiyoo is a South African artist based in Hout Bay, Cape Town.

My work is a fusion of old school drama comic strips, like Modesty Blaise, graphic novel and pop art. I draw inspiration from life's storytelling and attempt to weave narratives that capture the essence of day-to-day life, experiences, nostalgia, personal experiences, exchanges and writing, while at the same time exploring contemporary themes in pursuit of visual tales. With this in mind I want to establish a rapport with audiences that have their own stories fostering a shared sense of nostalgia and connection.

I refer to my medium as mixed media digital, layered elements comprise of textured snaps from my mobile phone and even dabs of mascara from my wife's makeup bag combined with a collection of dirty brushes.

Visages

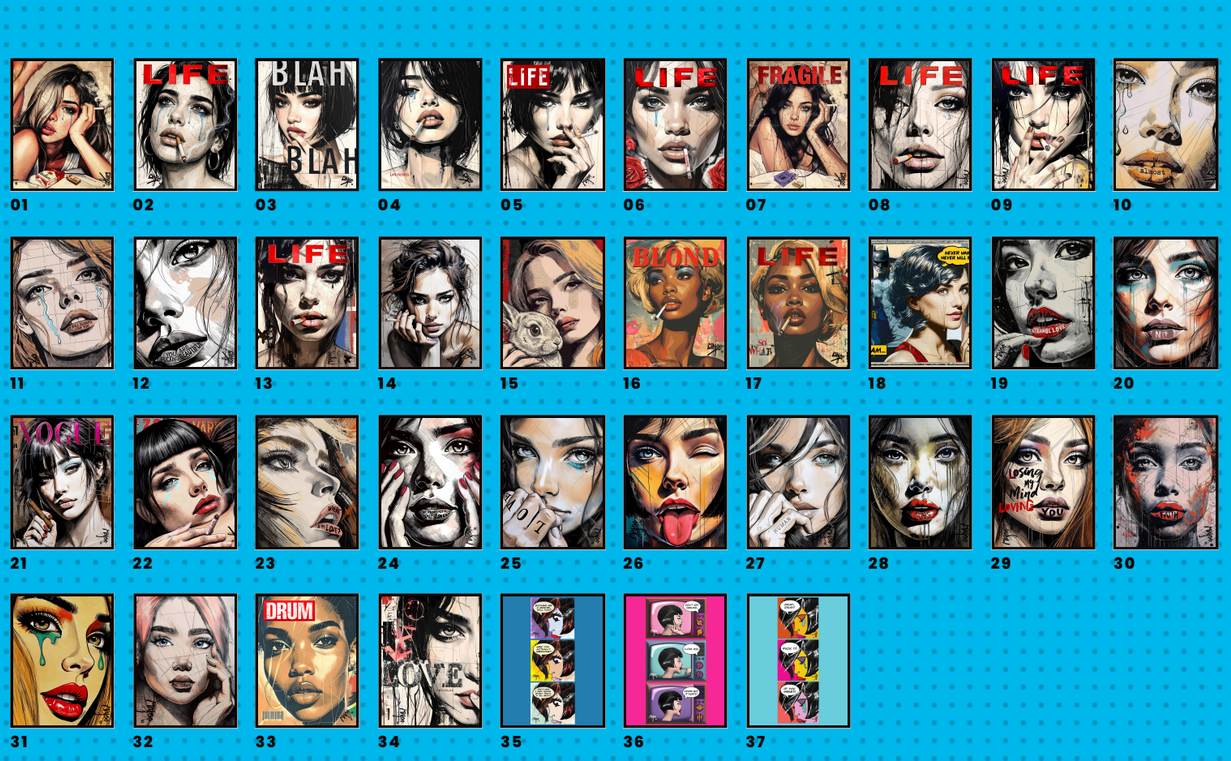

The Human Static

This is a series of faces, but not just likenesses.

They are moments.

Glimpses of emotion, vulnerability, rebellion, and resilience. These are the snapshots of what it means to be us.
Each piece is a visual confession, stripped of polish but full of story.
It's not about perfection — it's about recognition. You've felt this. You've been here.

The Green Steps

Ten Covers, One Stairwell

TEN COVERS THAT WERE NEVER PRINTED, SHOT ON A STAIRWELL THAT NEVER REACHES THE TOP.

One flight of green steps. One red dress. Ten covers that were never printed.

She is styled for the shot and undone by it — mascara gone, shoes in her hand, still holding the pose the camera asked for.

Each issue names the thing we sell her. Beauty. Perfection. Seduction. Temptation. The cover line is the lie; the stairwell is where she waits it out.

Nobody is coming down to meet her. She stays anyway.

Glitch

The Cat Is A Mirror

IS THE LIFE WE LIVE IN LAYERS: MASKED & PIXELATED, BUT ALWAYS BEATING WITH THE RAW BEAT OF A HIDDEN HEART.

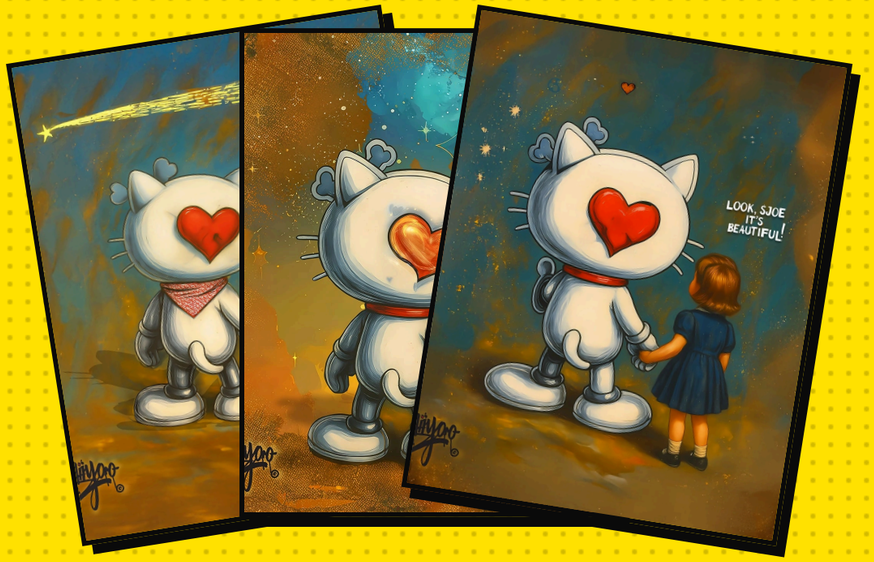

He is both familiar and unknowable.

A myth stitched into the fabric somewhere between the street and life itself.

A mirror, he is you and me. We wear his flickering personas.
He is every moment we've felt or nothing at all.
This is Glitch...

"With this work, my intention was to carve out a space, a break away from the mainstream trend of recycling pop culture icons. from the saturated pop remix scene, offering a fresh icon that resonates through originality, relatability, and a quiet rebellion against the expected. A character born from the texture of real life".

Rooted in a philosophy that art should mirror life's familiar rhythms, quirks, contradictions and even social commentary. Glitch is more than just a stylised cat — it's a personality, a mood, a quiet observer of the everyday. With expressive nuance and streetwise charm, Glitch reflects those strange little moments we all recognise but rarely name.
